10. Commissioners Court Comments

10.1. Commissioners Court Comments

Commissioner Marr thanked everyone for coming out today. He apologized for missing last week, he mentioned the conference for urban counties. He let everyone know he will be in D.C. next week for infrastructure week with NACO. He hopes to continue road building efforts, as long as the weather cooperates.

Commissioner Arthur stated road building will continue as long as the rain stays out and the equipment continues to function. He mentioned the dumpster enclosure is something that has been in the works for a long time, and the city of Sherman gained from the agreement, but also commended the city for their cooperation with getting it done. It will get the dumpster off the street and additional parking around the courthouse. He assures it will be a positive move for the west side of the courthouse.

Commissioner Hardenburg thanked the city of Sherman for their cooperation with opening up additional parking on the courthouse grounds. He mentioned roadwork is continuing on Eisenhower Road, they are hoping to get forty loads of rock hauled in today May 12, 2026, before the rain next week.

Judge Dawsey hopes everyone enjoys the weather and the temperatures before summer fully sets in and hopes everyone has a good week.
